Young Heroes Changing the World

Young people today have been inspired to take actions on a variety of important issues. We are asking you to write an essay about a young hero whom you find inspiring. To help you choose someone, please go to the following website and select one person featured from the list of young activists.

https://www.complex.com/life/young-activists-who-are-changing-the-world/

Use the following three questions to guide your writing.

- Why have you chosen this person?
- Why is their issue important?
- How has this person inspired your thinking, your understanding, and possible actions you could take?

Be sure to write in your own words and not plagiarize any information from the website. Quotes may be used sparingly.
