4. Strategic Plan (Johnson)
Shall the Board approve the Strategic Plan of the Nevada Joint Union High School District?

Background:
The Board and Superintendent of the Nevada Joint Union High School District agreed to begin the development of a long range strategic plan for the District in November of 2013. The Superintendent initially worked with the fund development consultants as part of her first 100 day-plan which facilitated the research phase of the planning process. In December the Superintendent had a meet and confer with the teacher’s union to discuss the CCSS implementation, LCAP planning and the strategic planning process. Additionally a Town Hall Meeting was held on December 5, 2013 for all interested community members. In January 2014 an Education Summit was held with stakeholders from the school community to work in groups to begin the draft of a six year strategic plan. The initial draft was presented to the Board at a special meeting and at the February regular meeting as a first reading.
